Karaoke was created thirty years ago in the city of Kobe, Japan. It actually means 'empty orchestra' and was originally popular with the businessmen who wanted to relax after a day's work. With time, however, karaoke has become extremely popular and it is now a hit in bars, restaurants, hotels, parties and even at weddings!

Today a lot of karaoke fans prefer to buy CDs including special karaoke versions of the songs by their favourite artist. They also often use karaoke players available on the Internet. That way, they have the opportunity to practise singing at home before they show their talents in front of others.

In twenty years karaoke's popularity has spread far beyond Japan and it has got to the rest of the Far East, North America and Europe. It appears that the rest of the world also enjoys the idea of having a drink and singing songs among friends. Anywhere friends or family meet for a good time, they enjoy holding the microphone and singing along with the music. It is so much fun!

Two Americans were travelling in Spain. One morning they entered a little restaurant for lunch. They didn't know Spanish, however, and the waiter didn't know English. So they tried to make him understand that they wanted some milk and sandwiches.

At first they pronounced the word 'milk' many times. Then they spelled it. But the waiter still could not understand.

At last one of them took a piece of paper and began to draw a cow. He was just finishing his drawing, when the waiter looked at it and ran out of the restaurant.

"You see", said the traveler who had drawn the cow, "what pencil can do for a man who has difficulties in a foreign country".

After some time the waiter was back, but he brought no milk. He put on the table in front of the two men two tickets for a bullfight.
